

My 5 Step System on - How I Get Girls

It Goes Like this:

- 1) Offer
- 2) Lead Gen
- 3) Lead Management
- 4) Lead Conversion
- 5) Lead Maintenance

Offer:

Before we can have any business or any hopes of getting women, we have to know what our offer is.

In business - it's house cleaning or Vada paav, but it has to be something.

When it comes to dating, we, as men, are the offer, and everything that comes with dating us

Most men don't know/like themselves, and they have a long list of things they dislike about themselves.

Imagine having a business where you do not like your own product?

Probably wouldn't sell a lot, right?

Women often ask me what my biggest key to dating is?

My answer is always this:

“If you like yourself, you're more likely to give yourself to other people. It all starts at home.”

Make your offer good and it makes everything else easier

Next we have Lead Gen -

Once you like yourself, you need to figure out who
-YOU like-

Just like in business, you have to know who you're selling to, right?

Who your target customer is.

You can't sell Chicken to Brahmins...

ASK YOURSELF-

What type of girls do you like?

What type do you want to attract?

Once you know what you like, you can then create a plan on where to find them, and what to say to them.

Part of successful dating is not wasting time on girls that aren't compatible with you, short or long term.

Awesome!

now that we know who we like, where we find them and what to say to them...

next is Lead Management

Think of lead management simply as digital communication.

How are you reaching them (platform), and what are you saying to them to get them interested in buying your offer (you)

Most men struggle the most in this area. Getting a girl's number means nothing if she doesn't text you back, right?

The best key that I've found to lead management is to keep tension in the texting.

It should always be leading to something.

Too much tension? Snaps the line.

Not enough tension? Loses the emotion.

You've made it here! Congratulations, we still have a ways to go, but I want to tell you this:

There's going to be problems at every step of this system.

And that's okay.

If you're the type of guy who appreciates guidance and coaching when learning a new skill, DM me the word "System"

And I'll be happy to show you coaching options to work with me

Keep Going >

Great!

You've got her texting you and you want to meet her, good job! That takes us to - Lead Conversion.

This covers how to get her on the date, have a successful date, and depending what your goals are, take her home or set up more dates in the future (or if you're smart, both!)

We need to be able to define what a successful date is for us.

Our goals will be different if it's just looking for hookups or looking for our life partner.

The biggest thing I can recommend here: Lead more.

Take more action and make more decisions.

Don't be afraid to "BE THE MAN" and take charge.

Don't listen to your feminist friends, or the internet.

GIRLS LOVE A MAN WHO TAKES CHARGE, EVEN IF THEY WON'T SAY IT.

BE DADDY.

The less she has to think, the better!

This brings us to our final step:

Lead Maintenance.

After you built your offer, found sexy women with lead generation, communicated effectively with lead management, and successfully converted with lead conversion, the question begs,

“What next?”

Ask yourself these questions :

Do I want to continue to see her?

How often if so?

How much do I want to invest into this?

Is this worthy of my time?

Setting proper expectations in this phase will save you a ton of time (and heartache)

Here’s a secret...

You can have it your way!

Maybe it won’t be with her specifically, but you will meet women that share your dating goal or goals if you set proper expectations.

Abundance, baby!

The world is yours but you have to be man enough to take it!

So let's recap...

Offer - who we are

Lead Gen - who we want and how we get them

Lead Management - how we text them

Lead Conversion - how we date them

Lead Maintenance - how we keep them

I've developed this system from years of trial and error.
Many successes, many failures.

It's safe to say, I love this shit.

And I would love to be able to share it with you.

If you're a guy that's already successful in other areas of life (business, career, fitness) or is working towards improving your life and want to excel in relationships and dating, message me the word "system"

And we'll get you into my 1 on 1 coaching program. Cheers
